

Delegates are requested to send scientific papers for presentation in the conference.

Scientific papers should be mainly in following types:

- a) presentation of clinical cases with data analysis and conclusion to give message to others
- b) presentation of any interesting atypical case with good result by acupuncture therapy
- c) research activities if done
- d) any theoretical idea proposition on acupuncture, traditional medicines, related health science, compilation of ancient records and experiences
- e) acupuncture education, legislation, future prospects etc.

The scientific papers should be submitted in the following standard protocol.

1. Title of paper
2. Name of author/s (without any prefix like Dr. etc)
3. Abstract - should contain the main points only. It should not exceed 100 words
4. Key words - 4 to 5 words which are relevant to understand the contents of the paper
5. Main paper - It should be divided in following sections; a) introduction b) materials and methods c) results d) discussion e) conclusion. (This will not be printed in book of abstracts)
6. Academic qualifications of author/s chronologically. Government recognised medical degree/ diploma/ post-graduate qualification/ non-medical education etc. For example for author A - Bachelor of Homeopathic Medicine and Surgery (Calcutta University), Certificate in Acupuncture (Jadavpur University). Author B - Bachelor of Arts (Delhi University), Training in naturopathy (Bangalore University) etc.
7. Full address of office/ clinic/ institution with phone No. , email, whatsapp etc.

For presentation of papers, delegate registration is mandatory.

If registration not done, abstract will not be printed.

Organising committee has the liberty to edit, cut short any abstract maintaining the above proforma.